RABBI'S REFLECTIONS

While the Passover Seder marks the beginning of our journey as a free people, it is the holiday of Shavuot that marks our acceptance of this status. On Shavuot, we commemorate the occasion on which we assumed responsibility for the freedom we've been given. This is the moment when we accepted the Torah.

At Mount Sinai we received our mission statement. It was not enough just to escape Pharaoh, and then flee into the wild. Freedom is not about "everything goes," but about responsibilities; it is about entering into covenants, and forming responsible relationships.

Counting the Omer

On the second Seder night, we begin a sacred counting, of Sefirat HaOmer. We begin to count the 50 days that lead from freedom at the shore of the Sea of Reeds to the moment we received the Torah at Mount Sinai.

Traditionally, each day we say a blessing and count one more day. This practice offers us time to reflect on what it means to be free.

"Great things are done by a series of small things
brought together."

Vincent van Gogh

StBaldricks.org

When Shavuot arrives, we are asked to re-commit ourselves to the covenant we have with Torah, with each other, with the larger communities of which we are part, with the Jewish people as a whole, with the human race, and with the natural world in which we live, and which needs our efforts to safe-guard it. Acceptance of the Torah involves all these relationships. As we count the Omer to Shavuot, let us consider: how will we live up to our responsibilities as free people?

FROM THE DESK OF OUR PRESIDENT

Yay for May! Flowers are blooming, students are graduating and moms are getting some well-deserved appreciation. What a fabulous month! In addition, May is Jewish American Heritage Month and so, the month is full of celebrations among Jews and non-Jews in the United States.

May is Pretty, May is Mild
by Annette Wynne
May is pretty, May is mild,
Dances like a happy child;
Sing out, robin; spring out, flowers;
April went with all her showers,
And the world is green again;
Come out, children, to the glen,
To the meadows, to the wood,
For the earth is clean and good,
And the sky is clear and blue,
And bright May is calling you!
May is pretty, May is mkle,
Dances like a happy child,
On a blessed holiday,
Come out, children, join the play!

Here are a bunch of reasons to throw a party and get out to join the fun:

Lag B'Omer on May 9

What is Lag B' Omer? Lag B'Omer is the 33rd day of counting the Omer, the 49-day period between Passover and Shavuot. "Lag" in Hebrew is the number 33. The Omer is a time of semi-mourning when weddings and other celebrations are forbidden, and as a sign of grief, observant Jews do not cut their hair. We learn in the Talmud that during this season, a plague killed thousands of Rabbi Akiva's students because they did not treat each other respectfully. The mourning behavior is presumably in memory of those students and their punishment. According to a medieval tradition, the plague ceased on Lag B'Omer, the 33rd day of the Omer. As a result, Lag B'Omer became a happy day, interrupting the sadness of the Omer period for 24 hours. We listen to music and enjoy the season by celebrating outdoors.

Members of the FJCC will gather for a celebratory dinner and musical concert with the band Coo Coo Cachoo on May 8th at 6:30. Please register on Shulcloud:
<https://flemingtonjcc.shulcloud.com/event/Lag-BOmer-Picnic=2023>

FROM THE DESK OF OUR PRESIDENT

If those were not enough, here are a few additional reasons to celebrate in May:
Teacher Appreciation Day on May 9

Mother's Day on May 14

National Chocolate Chip Day on May 15

and

Yom Yerushalayim (Jerusalem Day) on May 19

Yom Yerushalayim commemorates the reunification of Jerusalem and the establishment of Israeli control over the Old City after the six-day war against the Jordanian forces in 1967. The day is marked with different events such as recitations of the Hallel prayer in Synagogues, lectures on the history of Jerusalem, street parades, parties, state ceremonies, and memorial services for those that died in the six-day war.

At the FJCC, on May 18 th we will celebrate with a virtual tour of the city of Jerusalem by Israeli tour guide, Joel Haber, a New Jersey native. He will talk about the history of the city, entice us with the tastes and smells of the bustling marketplace, and highlight some of the important tourist sites. Look on ShulCloud for more specific information and to register for this engaging event:

<https://flemingtonjcc.shulcloud.com/event/Yom-Yerushelayim-2023>

To round out the later part of the month, more celebrations are called for on:

Armed Forces Day on May 20

Shavuot starts evening of May 25

Memorial Day on May 29

Whatever the reason or the day, to all the adults, adults who are children-at-heart, and to all the children -- come out and join the play!

B'NAI MITZVAH SPOTLIGHT

Mazel Tov to Rose Cameron Weitz on her May 6th, 2023 Bat Mitzvah. Rose is a 7th grader at JP Case Middle School. She loves baking, singing, playing piano and clarinet, needlepointing, and art. For Rose's Bat Mitzvah project, she has been baking cupcakes in exchange for donations made to Family Promise of Hunterdon County. To date, Rose has raised approximately $850. She plans to continue this project after her Bat Mitzvah. Stay tuned for future baking dates. Rose is very excited to celebrate her Bat Mitzvah with family and friends.

HEBREW SCHOOL

Hebrew School has been busy with the holidays. There was a large crowd at the Purim dinner and Megillah Reading. As soon as Purim ended, the student began their Passover studies to be well-prepared for their family Passover Seders. The Rabbi led a Model Seder on Zoom for Gan - seventh grade. Only a few weeks of Hebrew School are left, and the students will be wrapping up their studies.

Speaking of wrapping things up, join us for a Shabbat dinner on May 12th, serving wraps and mac and cheese. The Gimel and Dalet students will lead services, and the Gimel students will receive a Siddur.

Thank You

Dear FJCC Family and Friends,

I am humbled by the outpouring of support over these past few months. Your kindness and generosity have been overwhelming. I have enjoyed the text messages, phone calls, get-well cards, gifts, meals, and gift certificates for meals.

I am looking forward to returning to the building in the coming weeks and thanking you all in person.

With gratitude,
Karen
