RABBI'S REFLECTIONS

Just after observing Tisha B'Av, the saddest day on the Jewish calendar, we celebrate Tu B'Av (Hebrew: ט"ו באב, lit. 'fifteenth of Av'). Today, in modern-day Israel, it is celebrated as a holiday of love, similar to Valentine's Day. Traditionally, it's an auspicious day for weddings.

Tu stands for tet-vav, the letters whose numerical value is fifteen. The fifteenth of the month corresponds to the full moon, which is probably why many of our holidays begin on the 15th of the Hebrew month.

According to the Mishna, Tu B'Av was a joyous holiday in the days of the Temple in Jerusalem, marking the beginning of the grape harvest. (Yom Kippur marked the end of the grape harvest.)

On both dates, the single women of Jerusalem, rich and poor, without exception, dressed in white, and went out to dance in the vineyards, in view of the single men. This was their chance to find a husband! Women who thought of themselves as beauties would sing: "Young men, turn your eyes to beauty..." The daughters of prominent families would sing: "Young men, turn your eyes to noble parentage..." Those possessing neither beauty nor noble birth sang: "Grace is beautiful and beauty is vain; but a woman that fears God, she shall be praised."

This holiday comes soon after Tisha B'Av. Perhaps it is to teach us an important lesson. The Jewish people have known many calamities and destructions. Our strength lies in our ability to rebound, and find love in the midst of a broken world. These days are hot and long. Tempers can run short. Now's the time to treat your partner, significant-other or spouse to a treat. As we begin the journey of reflection through High Holidays, let's start with repairing whatever may be amiss in our closest relationships.

FROM THE DESK OF OUR PRESIDENT

We are entering the lazy, hazy days of August ... but not at the FJCC! There are so many volunteers who continue to provide their assistance with the multitude of tasks at the shul. I want to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of them for their dedication to the FJCC!

In August, we are:

- 1) Leading regular services, visiting the sick, making check-in phone calls to congregants, tutoring Bar/Bat Mitzvah students, producing this monthly newsletter, etc.
- 2) Reviewing the pledges and payments to make sure everyone who is a member-in-good-standing gets a seat and an aliyah at the holidays
- 3) Developing the schedule of services and assigning aliyot for the High Holidays
- 4) Tutoring Torah readers for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur
- 5) Writing speeches
- 6) Managing the many phases of the the High Holiday mailing - learning how to send the material electronically, keeping track of responses and payments, preparing the list of names in the Yom Kippur Yizkor books, ordering a lulav and etrog for anyone who placed an order, etc.
- 7) Cleaning, painting, repairing, waxing in the building so it is organized and clean for the coming year
- 8) Installing a new bathroom for the Nursery school students
- 9) Polishing the silver on the Torahs before the High Holidays

FROM THE DESK OF OUR PRESIDENT

- 10) Making security arrangements for the coming season
- 11) Hiring and orienting staff for the coming year
- 12) Conducting a donation campaign for the Ukranian family coming to Flemington and another campaign to assist with Family Promise housing needs
- 13) Planning an engaging list of activities for the Sisterhood, Center Series and Youth Group, including the upcoming BBQ in late August
- 14) Designing event marketing in print and online in ShulCloud and social media
- 15) Writing curricula for the Hebrew School students
- 16) Preparing delicious meals for after services on Friday, Saturday and Sunday
- 17) Picking bushels of vegetables to be delivered to the grateful recipients at the Flemington Food Pantry

Whew! That's a long list. Certainly, there are things that I left off and I apologize for any oversight.

There are so many ways for each and every member to get involved! We welcome your participation with the FJCC. Choose a way to participate that interests you. Contact Deborah in the office, Rabbi Cohen or me and we will gladly find a way for you to give, learn, grow, and contribute to our community.

HEBREW SCHOOL

2023-2024

GAN GOES TO

AT THE
FLEMINGTON JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER

This program is for families who have Pre-K and Kindergarten aged children. Gan goes to Hebrew School will meet several times during the school year. Mrs. Clarin will be teaching again this year. Contact Karen Walsh for questions and to reserve your spot at kwalsh@flemingtonjcc.org.

Things you need to know:

1. This is not a drop off program. Parents and younger siblings will meet in the social hall and have an opportunity for coffee and nosh while Pre-K and Kindergarten aged children are in the program.

2. This program is designed so both children and parents can socialize, get to know one another, create meaningful friendships, and be introduced to Hebrew School.

3. Classes run from 10:00 am – 11:00 am on the following Sundays:

- a. September 10 – Rosh HaShanah
- b. October 8 – Details to Follow
- c. November 5 – All about Shabbat
- d. December 3 – Chanukah Time
- e. January 21 – The Birthday of the Trees
- f. February 4 - Havdalah
- g. March 24– Details to Follow
- h. April 14 – Passover
- i. May 19 -- Shabbat Time

4. Classes include a story, a craft and Jewish play time.

5. The children will be dismissed to their parents at 11:00 am. Families are invited to join the big kids for Rabbi time in the sanctuary to learn songs and prayers at 11:00 am

6. The cost of the program is $50 for the year.

BACK TO SCHOOL

Back to School Forms are due August 14th.
Send the completed forms to Kimi Mittler,
kmittler@flemingtonjcc.org.

Bnai Mitzvah forms for all 6th and 7th grade students are to be returned by September 1.
Send the forms to Kimi Mittler,
kmittler@flemingtonjcc.org

THIS AND THAT

We are looking for a volunteer to scan and organize photos collected for the FJCC 100th celebration and to digitize paper photos found in the building. If interested, please contact Sharon Rednor at therednors@gmail.com.

Additionally, the FJCC had a DVD made about the 2006 move into our current building. We have multiple copies that are available for free. Anyone interested in a copy should call Deborah in the office at 908-782-6410.

INTRODUCING....

The Rutbeck-Goldman family joins the FJCC two years after relocating from Schenectady, New York, to their current "work in progress" farmhouse in Lambertville. Before living in Schenectady, Ariela and Harris spent a short period of time in Hoboken and the better part of the 2010's in southern California. Harris is a physicist at Stanford Research International (SRI), based in Princeton, and Ariela is an attorney with Legal Services of Northwest Jersey, based in Somerville. Their daughter Lev is four-years-old but going on 24, and their son Noam is ten-months-old, currently mastering the art of getting himself into all sorts of trouble. Our family enjoys all sorts of outdoor activities, especially hiking, camping, and swimming. We are excited to be a part of the welcoming FJCC community!

Additionally, we'd like to extend a warm welcome to our newest members:

Terri and Bernie Zucker

We look forward to getting to know you. Welcome to the FJCC Community!

Flemington Jewish Community Center
Sharon Rednor
5 Seagentsville Road
Flemington, NJ 08822

Thanks so much!

Dear Sharon,

On behalf of the Flemington Area Food Pantry's 420 volunteers and over 5,000 clients, we would like to take a moment to thank you and Flemington Jewish Community Center for your donation of 254 pounds of groceries on 05/24/2023. If you are looking to value your donation, we use the Feeding America estimate that the average wholesale value of a pound of groceries is worth $1.74.

The past three years have been filled with challenge after challenge, but we have been able to meet the ever-expanding needs of our client families thanks to the support of donors like you. We continue to experience record high numbers of visits while struggling to maintain our inventory due to rising prices and supply chain issues. In spite of these challenges, we have been able to provide our client families with not only pantry staples, but with fresh eggs, yogurt, meat, and cheese; none of which would be possible without your generosity.

Again, we thank you sincerely and express great gratitude for your donation to our organization. We look forward to your continued support. Take care and be well.

Kind Regards,

Jeannine Gorman

Your donation may be tax-deductible and no goods or services were provided in return for the donation. For your records, our tax ID is 22-3061060.

WELCOME CIRCLE

Melissa Kleiman and Leslie Reid-Green are FJCC's representatives of the At Home in Hunterdon Welcome Circle. Welcome Circles are a program of the HIAS (Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society) whereby groups can sponsor refugees for resettlement in the US. Our Welcome Circle has been matched with a family from Ukraine—a couple and their 7-year-old son. They are still in Ukraine and their neighbor's house has been bombed so the war has become very real to this family. Our core group, including representatives from 3 Hunterdon County churches and the FJCC are coordinating this move which will happen in late summer or early fall.

As sponsors, At Home in Hunterdon has committed to supporting this Ukrainian family for 6 months. We are raising money for this purpose from the Hunterdon County congregations. If you would like to donate to support this effort, you can do so by any of the following:

- Donating through your Shul Cloud account and select "Ukrainian Refugee Fund"
- Sending a check to the FJCC office. Check should be made out to the FJCC indicating in notes section that it is for Ukrainian family
- Call Deb at the FJCC office and make a donation by credit card.

We are looking for a 2-bedroom apartment in Flemington and we'll be recruiting volunteers to help with many aspects of resettling the family. If you are interested or have any questions, please contact:

Melissa Kleiman at mkleiman35@gmail.com or phone at (908)507-2647; or

SISTERHOOD'S MICHELLE COHN SCHOLARSHIP AWARD WINNER!

"I am a Jew because...." Essay

Samantha Muller

I am a Jew because of my family. Not only because of the matrilineal descent of Judaism but because of the vibrant traditions passed down to me. From the warm glow of Hanukkah candles to the sumptuous smell of my mother's Passover brisket, my year is made whole by centuries-old traditions that my family has adopted to become our own. Most notably, we fill our Passover table with neighbors and friends, many of whom are not Jewish. This simple act of inclusion represents to me the greater purpose of Judaism and its relevance in modern-time, to support and learn from one another. I am not a Jew to alienate myself from those of other faiths but rather to explore the religion which ties me to my ancestors, and to share in my traditions and those of others with an open mind. I view Judaism as a means of connecting with others rather than creating barriers, a way to connect with past, present, and future generations.

Through working with the first and second-grade class in Hebrew School, I have been granted the opportunity to aid the education of the next generation at the FJCC. Their growth throughout the year amazes me, and I am incredibly proud that I have been able to help them along the way. Regardless of how my week outside of the classroom had been, I was immediately rewarded through my time with them. Though their immense aptitude for the Hebrew language was often hidden behind a stubborn veil of "I would rather color", I witnessed a growing sense of self-confidence within each of them. Witnessing this growth has awarded me a greater appreciation for the numerous learning opportunities which Judaism provides.

Though the study of Hebrew is possibly the most obvious education provided by Judaism, I believe that being a Jew includes so much more. Through discussions of Torah stories and the welcoming community that has been fostered here at the FJCC, I have seen the moral framework that Judaism provides. From welcoming new members, to fundraising and volunteering together, our synagogue embodies what it means to serve one's community while helping one another become the best version of themselves. Judaism does not instill in one the fear of eternal damnation or the promise of a blissful afterlife as encouragement for one to be a good person, rather, Judaism expects that individuals will be responsible and kind members of their communities simply because it is the right thing to do.

Though the phrase "right thing to do" is highly subjective, Jews are granted the ability to decide for themselves how Judaism fits into their lives. Each sect of Judaism encourages a varied sense of conservativeness, and modern-day Jews are increasingly creating a unique definition of Judaism for themselves. For some, this may be living a strictly ultra-orthodox life. For others, this may be attending only high holiday services, or none at all, and holding in their heart the importance of respect and volunteerism. Though we are all vastly different, our shared identity as Jews ties us to one another and grants us the ability to appreciate the beautiful diversity of our world.

Congrats!
